

Circle of Success Member Takes Full Advantage of the Benefits of Membership ... and It Pays Off Big-Time

Steve Coombes, now an in-demand copywriter in the natural health and emergency preparedness niches, can trace his success to one event that put everything into motion.

"As a Circle of Success member, I get to attend Bootcamp for free; I've been to five since joining COS and never paid a dime for any of them," explains Steve, who attended his first event in 2007. "My first 'big-time' client was thanks to a Bootcamp Spec Assignment. I never would have made it to Bootcamp if it weren't for COS. Today, I continue to write for that same client every single month and have for over six years now."

Of course, Bootcamp is just one of the benefits of COS membership, says Steve. The instruction in the COS sessions is outstanding for learning copywriting. And the access to any AWAI resource creates your own personal reference library, he comments.

"Anytime I get a project in an unfamiliar area or believe I should brush up on a certain skillset, I take advantage of one of the AWAI programs or other materials always readily available to me."

Steve says that simply joining a group of like-minded people is also powerful.

"I've learned that copywriting success comes slowly when living in a bubble. I didn't know a single other copywriter personally before joining COS. The copywriting mentors and peers I've met since joining COS — both during online classes and at Bootcamp — have been invaluable to me."
